Studebaker Cars Combine Real Luxury With Low Cost.

Those who see the "35" for the first time generally ask the price twice or three.

Your first thought when you see the Studebaker "35" will probably be that you have been shown the "six" by mistake.

A six passenger Studebaker car of splendid proportions, electrically lighted and started, superbly cushioned and tired and trimmed—at $1200—it seems incredible.

Every Studebaker store has already heard the same query repeated a hundred times—"Did you say the price was $1200?"

And even the price of the Studebaker "Six"—$1550—will not express your enthusiastic impression of the value of the "35."

Instinctively and inevitably you will make comparisons from a $2000 angle.

And the Bourbon Garage is quite willing that you should inspect the "35" through $2000 lenses.

It accepts the responsibility of a comparison so trying and will gladly abide by the result.

It invites the $2000 buyer to descend to $1200 without any loss of satisfaction or in results.

BOURBON GARAGE.

lowing ladies with an elegant 12 o'clock dinner Friday: Mrs. John Burris, Mrs. Edsall Clark, Mrs. J. E. Boardman, Mrs. John J. Redmon and Mrs. B. F. Sledd, of North Middletown.

Mr. Johnson Burris is contemplating building and moving to his farm near Little Rock in the spring.

President R. H. Crossfield, of Transylvania University, Lexington, will preach at the Christian church the third Sunday in February.

The members of the Arthenian Literary Society will present the play, "A Case of Suspicion," at the graded school building on the evening of February 7.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

Messrs. J. B. and Broad Smedley continue about the same.

Mr. A. T. Moffett left Saturday for Wayne county to buy stock hogs.

Postmaster U. S. G. Pepper leaves today for a prospecting tour of Oklahoma.

Mr. S. C. Bascom, of Owingsville, was the guest Sunday and Monday of Mr. Lee L. Barton.

Messrs. Aaron McConnell and T. T. Bentley attended the funeral of Mrs. David Wells at Mt. Olivet Friday.

Mrs. Stevens, of Winchester, and Rev. Chandler, of Cynthiana, were guests of their sons at M. I. Friday.

Mrs. Mollie Slack, of Sharpsburg, who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. J. J. Peed, left Saturday to spend the remainder of the winter in Florida.

The recital given by the young ladies in music and expression at M. F. C. Friday evening was good and well attended. Several of them were the recipients of more than one encore.

Miss Maude Day, who has been connected with the Bourbon Home Telephone Co. for the past month has resigned her position to accept a better one at Lexington and entered on her duties Monday.

Mr. B. D. Layson and family, who have been the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Layson, for the past six weeks, left Saturday for a visit to Chicago, Ill., before returning to their home in Canada.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church realized $22 from their sale of edibles held Saturday. This sum will be turned over to the Hamilton Guards to be used in equipping a room in the W. W. Massie Hospital at Paris.

Considerable excitement has prevailed here for the past few days after it became generally known that Mr. C. B. Bastin had been asked to resign as local manager of the Bourbon Home Telephone Co. This came in the nature of a surprise to the many subscribers of the company since it was generally believed that Mr. Bastin had given satisfaction with the company as he had with his patrons. Mr. Bastin had been connected with the local office since the first of October and has given better satisfaction than any previous manager. For the past year there has been considerable trouble to maintain a manager here and after Mr. Bastin had demonstrated his ability along the line of this kind of work it was hoped by the patrons that a local manager had been found that would make something of the local business. It is said the office at Paris has been cutting down the number of employees in the exchange. For the past month they have had but two operators here, the twenty-four hours in the day being divided between these two ladies. Subscribers have realized that the work of local manager and operators have been very much handicapped by a lack of help. Saturday Mr. English was sent here to relieve Mr. Bastin. Mr. Bastin has a number of friends who regret this move on the part of the telephone company and a petition is in circulation which will be presented to the general office asking that Mr. Bastin be retained.

The petition was started in circulation yesterday morning and a large number of signatures have been placed to the list. It is said that late last night 140 names had been secured. The Millersburg people are very indignant over the action of the telephone officials in removing Bastin and unless he is reinstated subscribers of the company will order their telephone service discontinued.

Since the above was put in type it has developed the company has acceded to the wishes of the subscribers and reinstated Mr. Bastin. After the petition was circulated it became apparent the people of this place meant business and the officials of the company guarding their interests agreed to their demands.

—Mr. Jeff Davis Grover, of Scott county, has sold his farm on the Paynes Depot pike to Mr. N. F. Armstrong for $250 an acre.

—The coming of Aborn's mammoth spectacular production of "The Bohemian Girl" in English, to the Paris Grand on Thursday, February 6, should prove among the most important of the season's offerings. Balfe's masterpiece will be presented in a lavish stage environment that is said to rival any of the many productions given to this opera in its seventy years of popularity. The magnificence of the Aborn version combined with the wealth of detail never before attempted have caused many to wonder how it was ever possible to have given a completely satisfying performance of this grand old opera without the introduction of at least some of the ideas that have now been incorporated. To the opera has been given a scenic mounting comprised of six massive and magnificent scenes, and in this particular, widely different from the makeshift scenery that has usually been employed by traveling companies presenting Balfe's work. Among the features heretofore not known to this opera are a cavalcade of horses that are shown in a wild race up the mountains in pursuit of the kidnapping gypsy chief, an encampment of Gypsies who are seen making and breaking camp, with its genuine gypsies, dogs, geese, pigs, chickens, etc. These and a multitude of other novelties combine to make the Aborn version of "The Bohemian Girl" an offering of exceptional importance. The presenting company, one of importance and unusual size, includes a double cast of principals, big chorus and a special orchestra.

The most important of those comprising the cast are Helena Morrill, a prima donna discovery made by the Aborns during their Boston engagement last spring.

—The celebrated Marion Kitchen Cabinet $27.50, most complete cabinet made.

Another Cocking Main.

Chicken fighting sports from Cincinnati, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Louisville, Covington, Newport, Lexington and Paris attended the big cocking main that was held on a steamboat that plied up and down the river in front of Maysville Saturday night. The representatives from Portsmouth are said to have cleaned up the wealth wagged.

Blanche Ring at Lexington.

Stamped with the approval of New York, Chicago, and the larger cities of the country, "The Wall Street Girl" is again Blanche Ring's starring vehicle this season, and this popular comedienne will be seen in this greatest of her successes at the Lexington Opera House Monday, February 10.

When it comes to singing songs, there is only one Blanche Ring. In "The Wall Street Girl" there are fully a dozen tuneless numbers and half of them fall to Miss Ring; among them being "Deedle Dum Dee," "I Want a Regular Man," "I Should Have Been Born a Boy," and "Whistle It." Miss Ring has surrounded herself with a chorus of stunning girls, who assist materially in making the songs worth while.

Margaret Mayo and Edgar Selwyn are the co-authors of "The Wall Street Girl," while Haggood Burt is responsible for the lyrics. The music is by the late Karl Hoschna and various others. The piece is in three acts and irrespective of the music and songs would make an interesting play. James Greene, a Wall street broker, disappointed in not having a son, brings up his daughter, Jemima, in a mannish fashion. Her interest centers in a business career until she meets Dexter Barton from Nevada. Then she throws her masculine training to the winds and adopts all the fluffs and flourishes so dear to the hearts of most women.

Barton has a gold mining proposition to sell and when this is turned down by Greene, Jemima takes a hand and buys a half interest. How the gold mine saves Greene from financial failure and how Jemima falls in love with her mining partner are cleverly worked out by the co-authors.

Featured with Miss Ring is Will Rogers, whose lariat throwing and quiet humor touched New York and Chicago's funny bone. Among the other principals are William P. Carleton, Paul Porter, Charles Winninger, Elmer Thomason, George Gaston, Kate Wingfield, Lillian Spencer and Alice Sullivan.

Expert Barber.

Mr. Carl Crawford, a barber of 30 years' experience, invites the public to his new shop at the Windsor Hotel. Two chairs. Prompt service. Children's work a specialty. Razors honed satisfactorily.

Seats Going Fast.

The seats for the Aborn Opera Co., which appears at the Grand on Thursday night were put on sale yesterday morning and they went with a rush, about half the house being sold. Those desiring good seats had better have them laid aside this morning as the indications now are that the entire house will be sold before Thursday.

The News is requested to state that the curtain will go up promptly at 8:15 and that no one will be seated during the first act.

Best Made.
